KAPHA BODY ANOINT

An invigorating and energising exquisitely aromatic Kapha balancing Ayurvedic daily massage oil ritual for strengthening, toning and hydrating your skin, relaxing your muscles and uplifting your spirit into a divine level of true wellbeing.

Anoint yourself with this precious blend of exquisitely aromatic and skin nourishing oils. The Sanskrit word for oil Sneha, means love. Massaging your body with oils is a profound and mindful act of loving self-care that benefits your whole self, leading to higher levels of wellbeing and consciousness. This special herbal oil provides the means for transdermal absorption of the therapeutic qualities of the nutrients through the skin while simultaneously allowing for the elimination of toxins. Your Ayurvedic Abhyanga massage ritual combines deeply emollient and anti-oxidant rich plant oils of Camellia, Pumpkin, Sunflower and Apricot brimming with essential fatty acids and vitamins. An infusion of invigorating Eucalyptus and Tulsi will strengthen and fortify your nervous system. Lemon, Cedarwood, Ylang Ylang and Cypress will enliven and uplift your Kapha nature while leaving a trail of subtle aroma to gift you the remembering of self-love and gratitude throughout your day.

Ritual

AS A DAILY SKIN HYDRATOR:

- After you shower or bath while your skin is still damp, shake the bottle to activate and then warm a few pumps of Kapha Body Anoint between your palms.
- Breathe in the warm and rich aroma and then smooth all over your body lovingly and mindfully to lock in moisture, provide day long hydration and give your skin a luxurious healthy glow.
- Finish by taking a few deep breaths and gifting yourself a moment of quiet.

AS AN AYURVEDIC ABHYANGA MASSAGE RITUAL:

1. Warm the Kapha Anoint by sitting the bottle in bowl of hot water for a few minutes.
2. Use this time to prepare a towel to stand on while you do your massage or if you prefer a chair to sit on.
3. Pump some heated Kapha Anoint into the palms of your hands and rub together to spread.
4. Close your eyes and take a few deep breaths of the Kapha Anoint, inhaling the uplifting aroma and centring yourself to prepare for the massage.
5. Massage downwards in the direction of hair growth towards the feet in this sequence:
 - Start with the neck, shoulders and arms working from the shoulders towards the hands using firm long strokes along the neck and bones of arms and circular strokes around the joints - shoulders, elbows and wrists.
 - Massage your hands including the palms and back of hands and the individual fingers and the finger joints.
 - Massage the chest and stomach with a lighter pressure using both hands in a circular motion, moving clockwise which aids digestion.
 - Massage the back, spine and sides as far as your hands can reach using firm and long strokes.
 - Now massage the legs in the same way you did the arms: straight on the bones, circular on the joints and from the hip downwards towards your feet, in the direction of the body hair.
 - Massage the feet including the sole and top of the foot vigorously applying firm pressure with your palms. The toes are massaged individually like the fingers.
 - Finish by closing your eyes and taking a few deep breaths. You may wish to do the Aika Sacred Meditation. Sit for a few moments to let the oils sink into your skin.
6. The Kapha Body Anoint has been created to be left on the skin for all day nourishment. Alternatively, you may wish to remove it in the shower or bath. If you do so, minimise the amount of soap you use as this can be very drying on the skin.

Tips

Use the Kapha Anoint as an opulent bath oil for a sensuous and aromatic bathing ritual. Simply add a few pumps to a warm to hot bath.

Perfect for using after dry body brushing to help absorption of the oil and stimulate the lymph.

It is very beneficial to apply the Kapha Body anoint before yoga, sports or physical activities. This will warm and increasing the circulation in your muscles and ligaments.
