PITTA BODY ANOINT

A cooling and calming exquisitely aromatic Pitta balancing Ayurvedic daily massage oil ritual for strengthening, toning and hydrating your skin, relaxing your muscles and soothing your soul into a divine level of true wellbeing.

Anoint yourself with this precious blend of exquisitely aromatic and skin nourishing oils. The Sanskrit word for oil Sneha, means love. Massaging your whole body with oils is a profound and mindful act of loving self-care that benefits your whole self, leading to higher levels of wellbeing and consciousness. This special herbal oil provides the means for transdermal absorption of the therapeutic qualities of the nutrients through the skin while simultaneously allowing for the elimination of toxins. Your Ayurvedic Abhyanga massage ritual combines deeply emollient and anti-oxidant rich plant oils of Camellia, Coconut, Macadamia and Neem brimming with essential fatty acids and vitamins. An infusion of cooling Rose and Liquorice will help relieve skin sensitivity, release irritation and calm your deep emotions. Palmarosa, Geranium, Sweet Orange and Patchouli will soothe and comfort your Pitta nature leaving a trail of subtle aroma to help you mindfully return to self-love with gratitude throughout your day.

Ritual

NOTE:

1. We use virgin unrefined organic coconut oil which solidifies in cooler temperatures. Warming the Pitta Anoint by sitting the bottle in hot water for a few minutes will make for a beautifully melted velvety texture that is super easy to apply.

AS A DAILY SKIN HYDRATOR:

- After you shower or bath while your skin is still damp, shake the bottle to activate and then warm a few pumps of Pitta Body Anoint between your palms.
- Breathe in the warm and rich aroma and then smooth all over your body lovingly and mindfully to lock in moisture, provide day long hydration and give your skin a luxurious healthy glow.
- Finish by taking a few deep breaths and gifting yourself a moment of quiet.

AS AN AYURVEDIC ABHYANGA MASSAGE RITUAL:

1. Warm the Pitta Anoint by sitting the bottle in bowl of hot water for a few minutes.
2. Use this time to prepare a towel to stand on while you do your massage or if you prefer a chair to sit on.
3. Pump some heated Pitta Anoint into the palms of your hands and rub together to spread.
4. Close your eyes and take a few deep breaths of the Pitta Anoint, inhaling the uplifting aroma and centring yourself to prepare for the massage.

- Massage downwards in the direction of hair growth towards the feet in this sequence:
 - Start with the neck, shoulders and arms working from the shoulders towards the hands using firm long strokes along the neck and bones of arms and circular strokes around the joints - shoulders, elbows and wrists.
 - Massage your hands including the palms and back of hands and the individual fingers and the finger joints.
 - Massage the chest and stomach with a lighter pressure using both hands in a circular motion, moving clockwise which aids digestion.
 - Massage the back, spine and sides as far as your hands can reach using firm and long strokes.
 - Now massage the legs in the same way you did the arms: straight on the bones, circular on the joints and from the hip downwards towards your feet, in the direction of the body hair.
 - Massage the feet including the sole and top of the foot vigorously applying firm pressure with your palms. The toes are massaged individually like the fingers.
 - Finish by closing your eyes and taking a few deep breaths. You may wish to do the Sacred Aika Meditation. Sit for a few moments to let the oils sink into your skin.
5. The Pitta Body Anoint has been created to be left on the skin for all day nourishment. Alternatively, you may wish to remove it in the shower or bath. If you do so, minimise the amount of soap you use as this can be very drying on the skin.
